Day 3 Options

Concord-Lexington-Lowell

On the agenda today is a visit to Lexington Green, site of the first skirmish in our American Revolution. Then it's on to Concord and the Old North Bridge where, in the words of Ralph Waldo Emerson, "the shot was fired heard round the world". We'll follow the route of the Minutemen driving along Battle Road, passing the homes of literary greats Louisa May Alcott, Nathaniel Hawthorne, Ralph Waldo Emerson, and Henry David Thoreau.

Following lunch we switch gears and fast forward 50 years to 1820 with a visit to Lowell, the first planned industrial city in America, and a visit to the National Textile Museum. The story of our American Industrial Revolution is told through fascinating displays that will take you on a journey of America during the 1820's. Dinner will follow this unique and enjoyable experience.

Salem - Gloucester - Rockport

Today we head north to the Town of Salem and a visit to the Salem Witch Museum where you will learn the sad history of this town made famous in 1692 for the hanging of nearly 100 innocent citizens wrongly accused of witch craft. The town is also rich in maritime, architectural and literary history and we will explore those aspects of this seaside community as well with a guided tour through Nathaniel Hawthorne's "House of the Seven Gables".

Then it's on to the well-known fishing community of Gloucester and the picturesque artist town of Rockport where you will have time to stroll the quaint streets and explore the many shops and art galleries that line the town wharf.

Plymouth & Sandwich

Today we will visit Plymouth for a guided tour of "America's Hometown". You'll see "Mayflower II", "Plymouth Rock", and "Forefathers National Monument".

Next, we cross over the Cape Cod Canal for a visit to Sandwich, Cape Cod's oldest town. This quaint and picturesque village is famous for "Sandwich Glass ". During our stay, we will visit the "Sandwich Glass Museum" to see a collection of this beautiful glassware and a glass blowing demonstration.

A Buffet Luncheon has been arranged at an historic New England inn

Coastal Maine with Traditional Lobster Bake

We're off for a full day of exploring the "rock bound coast of Maine". We begin with a visit to the seaside community of Kennebunkport. You'll see former President George Bush's summer home on "Walker Point" and have time to stroll the quaint waterfront, browse in unique gift shops, and enjoying a relaxing lunch by the sea (on own).

We'll drive the coastal route passing through charming towns with white church steeples and the gracious homes of ship captains that surround each town's common. Along our route we will see lighthouses that have been warning mariners of danger in the 1700's. You'll have time for some bargain outlet shopping before a Traditional Lobster Bake (alternative choice available).

Canterbury Shaker Village and NH's Lake Winnepesaukee

This morning we will travel through scenic neighboring New Hampshire to Canterbury Shaker Village where we will enjoy a guided tour to learn about the lifestyle and times of members of this respected sect that was popular during the 1800's.

We'll board the historic M/S Mt. Washington for a cruise on Lake Winnepesaukee, the largest lake in New England, and surrounded by spectacular views of The White Mountains
