LIMITED SEATS SO BOOK EARLY

You'll want to be in the audience for this special evening of world class musical entertainment, and the most popular of the Tanglewood Summer Series, "Tanglewood on Parade". Set in the beautiful Berkshire Mountains as backdrop, the music festival has attracted thousands of visitors each year since its first concert in 1934.

As evening falls, settle into the comfort of your reserved seat in the covered Shed for a delightful program that includes Ravel's Daphnis et Chloe, Suite No. 2, Gershwin's Rhapsody in Blue, and Tchaikovsky's 1812 Overture under the batons of Keith Lockhart, John Williams, Charles Dutoit, and Bramwell Tovey.

Tanglewood has been the summer home of the Boston Symphony Orchestra when Mrs. Gorham Brooks and Miss Mary Aspinwall Tappan donated the estate in 1937 known as "Tanglewood", a name taken from "Tanglewood Tales" written by Nathaniel Hawthorne while he lived in a cottage located on the property.

Upon arriving in Lenox, we'll tour "The Mount", the estate of Pulitzer Prize winning author Edith Wharton, best known for her stories and novels about the upper-class New York society into which she was born in 1862.

Dinner before the concert will be at the Cork & Hearth Restaurant, a favorite of Unicorn travelers. On our way home, we'll tour "Arrowhead", home of Moby Dick author Herman Melville and finish-up with a visit to the Kringle Candle Store owned by the son of the founder of Yankee Candle.
