October 8-12, 2018
Monday-Friday
5 Days/4 Nights

If you enjoyed visiting the Amish in Lancaster, PA then you'll LOVE Holms County, Ohio!! With 55,000 Amish living in this one county alone, the roadways are "congested" with horse-drawn buggies and beautiful tidy Amish farms dominate the idyllic landscape.

Home for 2-nights will be the lovely Berlin Grande Hotel located in the heart of Holmes County. Our visit begins at The Farm at Walnut Creek where there is plenty to learn, do and see! A horse-drawn wagon will take you through an area where you can feed over 500 animals from six continents. You can observe all the activities on a working farm but done the Amish way!

A special treat tonight will be a guided tour of Warther's Museum that is home to 64 ebony, ivory and walnut trains carved by master wood carver, Ernest "Mooney" Warther. After learning his amazing story and enjoying a tour of his creations, we'll sit down to an elegant candlelight dinner among these priceless objects of art.

Autumn is the perfect time to explore all the back roads of this scenic region with our Local Guide. We'll visit an Amish School in session (possible ONLY with our guide), an Amish-owned bakery & Farm Market, and a fabulous Amish cheese shop with plenty of samples. Highlight of this day is a live performance of "Stolen" by Amish playwright Wanda Brunstetter, followed by an authentic wedding feast in an Amish home.

During our stay in Holmes County, you'll learn facts you never heard before about the interesting differences between sects within the Amish community and how each live according to different rules set down by their bishops. We'll visit a farm family who are members of the poorest and strictest of the Amish sects, Stwartzentrubers, a dramatically different image from what most of us have of the Amish people! You'll learn about the Amish beliefs and way of life including how Bishops are selected (for life), weddings, and the practice of shunning, Rumspringa, and more.

Our last night will be at the Sands Hotel & Casino Resort in Bethlehem, PA where you'll have the evening to enjoy over 3,000 slot and video poker machines and a variety of gaming tables. Each passenger will receive a $40 free slot play, voucher for dinner buffet and breakfast. In addition, everyone will be given a coupon book for discounts in the Premier Outlets attached to the hotel.
