

Celebrate the Holidays
 At
Blithewold Mansion all decked out for Christmas!
 With
A Traditional Afternoon Holiday Tea

December 4, 2019
 Wednesday

Join us for a day of holiday fun with a visit to 45-room BLITHEWOLD MANSION, overlooking the ocean in Bristol, Rhode Island. The mansion was the summer home of Pennsylvania coal baron Augustus Van Wickle and offers the perfect setting for beautiful holiday decorations.

As you enter the house, you are immediately awestruck by the 18-foot high Christmas tree iced with ribbons, silver icicles, snow covered roses and frosted pinecones that fills the two-story foyer. Local garden clubs take one room each and uniquely decorate it with a different magical winter wonderland theme that is a treat for the eyes.

We'll cap-off our visit with a Traditional Holiday Tea served in the mansion dining room. On the menu are two different scones, tea sandwiches, quiche, chicken salad filled Phyllo Cup, Chocolate Praline with Honey, Ambrosia Puff Pastry with Coconut Pudding, Carrot Cake and bottomless tea pot (coffee if requested).
