We'll start off with a relaxing lunch at Warren's Lobster House in Kittery, with its famous 60-item salad bar!

Then get ready for an afternoon at sea aboard the comfortable 340 passenger, Coast Guard approved, MV Thomas Laighton for a 3-hour narrated cruise of Portsmouth Harbor and out to nearby Isle of Shoals located in the Gulf of Maine.

You'll learn the history and folk lore of the 9 islands that make up the archipelago just 10 miles off the coast of Maine and New Hampshire. There is evidence that Vikings visited the islands 1000 years ago and was charted by explorer Samuel de Champlain during a voyage in 1605.

Have cameras ready as we cruise by a Revolutionary War fort and several lighthouses including picturesque White Island Light that was built before the Civil War. The islands serve as habitat for many seabirds and, if we are lucky, seals may swim out to greet us as we glide by their rocky home.
