New England Carousel Museum & Lunch Plus Colorful Roses at Peak in Hartford's Elizabeth Park

June 19, 2019
Wednesday

Join us for a visit to the very unique New England Carousel Museum for a guided tour of these whimsical treasures from our childhood. We'll walk among the colorful carved horses and learn how these works of art were created. Now lovingly restored, they are sure to bring back cherished memories from our youth.

You'll have time to browse the wonderful gift shop before a "Make Your Own Sandwich" Lunch Buffet set-up for us in the museum.

As we make our way home we'll stop in Hartford for a visit to Elizabeth Park to stroll 2 ½ acres of gardens when The Rose Garden is at peak of color. It is the first municipal Rose Garden in our country and today remains the 3rd largest. The wide variety of roses offer a colorful feast for the eyes so don't forget your camera!
